A Process Stuck in the Past

PROBLEM

Fragmented Coordination

- Citizens, volunteers, and authorities work separately.
- Leads to confusion and missed help.

Delayed Aid Delivery

- Requests take too long to reach responders.
- Delays can cost lives.

Scattered Information

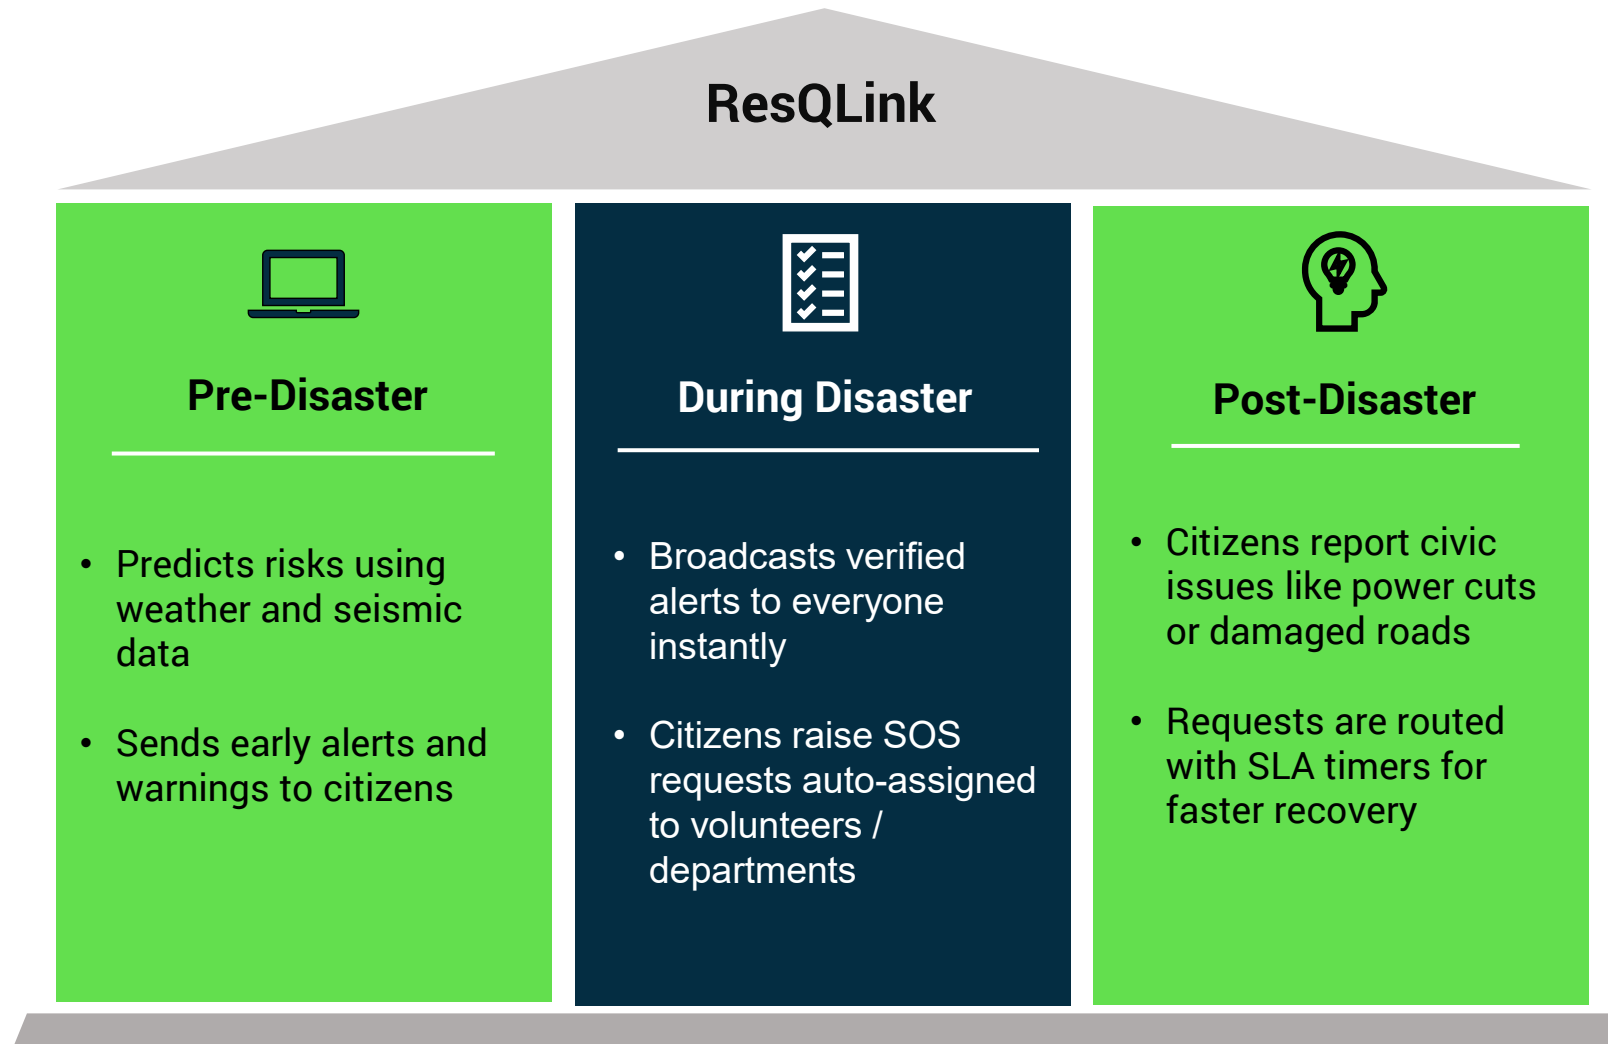

- Help requests come from many sources.
- Hard to verify and organize quickly.

Inefficient Resource Usage

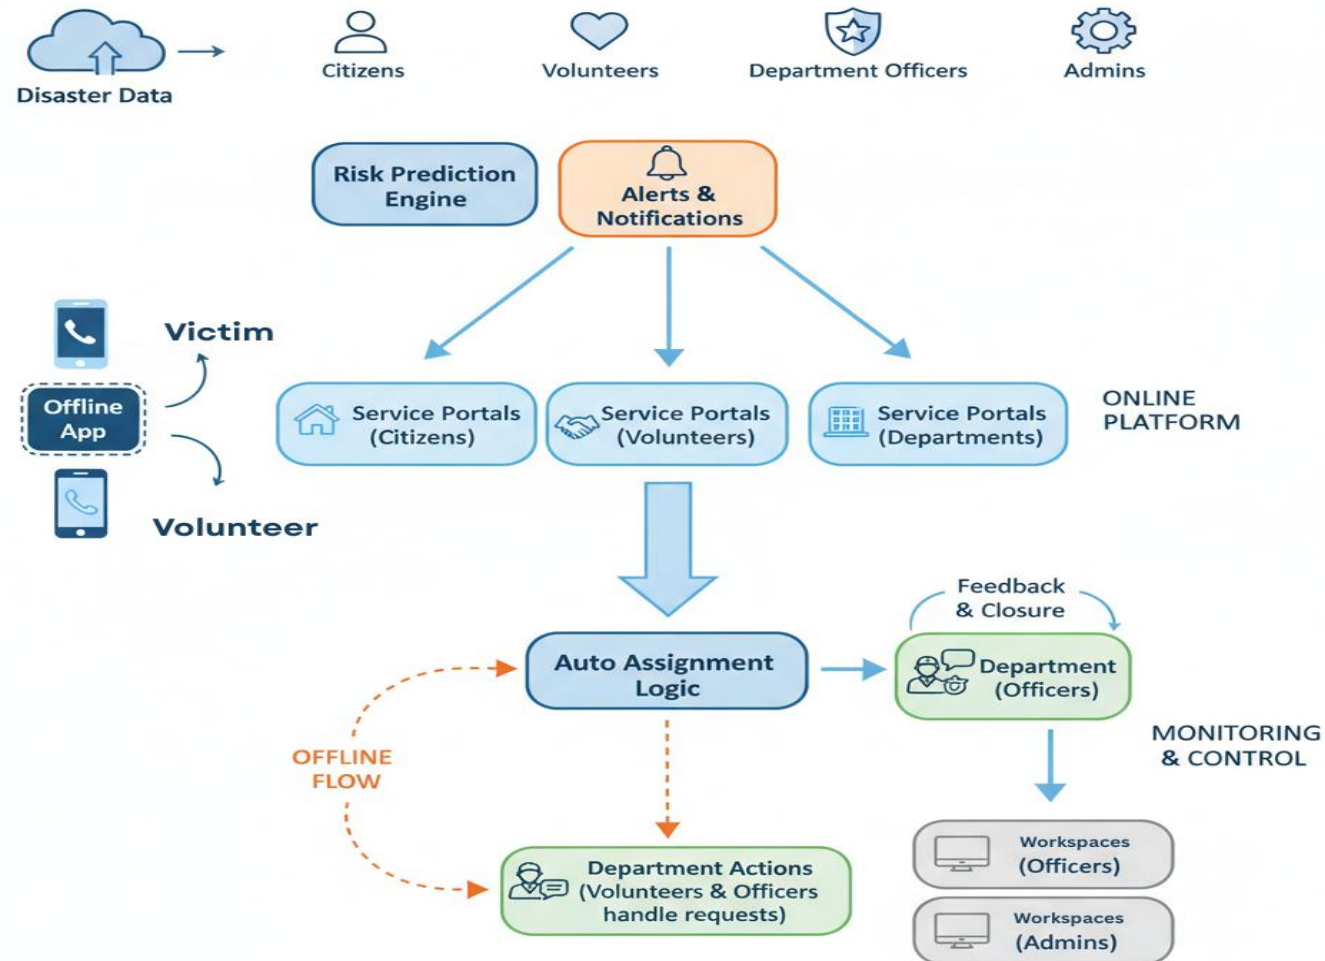

- Some areas get duplicate aid, others none.
- Resources are not used effectively.
